NEWS UPDATES FROM AROUND THE PARISH

Uncertainties!! The Coronavirus situation is changing on a daily basis. All around the parish many people are already offering practical solutions to what may be ahead of us. We realise there are many vulnerable people in our community and also many people who are living with family members who are vulnerable and so cannot put themselves at risk of infection. However please help your neighbours if you can without putting yourself at risk. Between us the Marwood Matters Team, Councillors, Church and Interest Groups know a lot of people so please make contact if you do need help as if we can't help then we probably know someone who can! Just a simple phone call or message to keep in touch with friends and neighbours can be very welcome and go a long way to help any situation.

We will keep in touch over the coming weeks AND PLEASE CHECK THE WEBSITE FOR UPDATES

FOR LATEST PARISH COUNCIL REPORT PLEASE GO TO THE PARISH COUNCIL WEB PAGE The Parish Council will not be holding any meetings until further notice. Council members will be following up their business through computer contact links and emails. Please contact them if you need to. All their details are on the MM website or noticeboards.

MARWOOD LADIES & MARWOOD CHURCH CREAM TEAS have been SUSPENDED for the foreseeable future.

MARWOOD - A fond encounter with a rural Devon Parish

Residents in Marwood may remember Anna-Louise who, while living in Guineaford, wrote a book 'Marwood - a fond encounter with a rural Devon parish'. Residents helped Anna with the research and provided old photographs and when it was published many of us bought the book so we could read about the history of our own houses. Anna has since moved on but has very kindly donated several new copies of the book for the Fabric Committee to sell in aid of Marwood Church funds. So if you didn't buy it first time round or you have moved into the parish of Marwood since 2011 this is your opportunity to buy a copy. They are £14.99 each and available from Angela on 01271 376744.
