Dear All,
Happy Easter to you all and we hope it won't be too long before we see a good spell of warm, dry, sunny weather.

We are aware, like other areas in North Devon, that Royal Mail is trying to cut costs by reducing the numbers of postmen/women. In areas like ours where there are no numbers on houses or even road names, we all know ourselves that it takes a lot of getting used to! Many of us also really appreciate the value of postmen in our rural areas just 'being aware'. Both our postmen in Marwood now have extended rounds and less time - please let the Royal Mail Office in Barnstaple know if there are any specific concerns you have.
